

March Spotlights

Longwood Gardens Community Read Events

Delaware Natural History Museum Presents: Animal Engineers
Friday, March 10 @ 11 am

Take a look at some live animals that you can find in your own backyard that take building to the next level!

Everyone welcome; suggested for ages 3—8.

The Delaware Art Museum Presents: Rosie Revere, Engineer
Thursday, March 30 @ 11 am

Hear about Rosie as she learns, tinkers, tries, and tries again. After the story students will enjoy learning about some of the Delaware Art Museum's sculptural pieces.

Each child will get to build their own flying parachute!

Everyone welcome; suggested for ages 4—7.

Rosie & Friends: A Longwood Gardens
Community Read Story Time
Friday, March 31 @ 10:30 am

We'll be reading Rosie Revere, Engineer, this year's Longwood Gardens Community Read, as well as some other stories about creativity and perseverance. We'll also be building a cardboard city!

Everyone welcome; suggested for ages 3—8.

Registration required for these programs: please contact Randi Kennedy at 717-806-1804 or rkennedy@quarryvillelibrary.org to register.

Teen Tech Week Activities

March 6—11: Pokemon Scavenger Hunt

There are 10 pokemon hiding in the library! Help us find them and enter to win a free book from the bookstore.

March 10 @ 5 pm: Teen Leadership Group Meeting

A volunteer initiative for teens! Come to the meeting and find out what it's all about!

March 10 @ 5:30 pm—7:30 pm: Teen Talent Show

The Quarryville Library Teen Leadership Group presents a winter Teen Talent Show! Come out and show off your special skill. Music, dance, sleight-of-hand, juggling: whatever your talent, you're welcome!

Prizes: $25 for First Place, $10 for Second Place, & Free Movie Rentals for Third Place.

Registration required, limited to 20 acts. Please register with Randi Kennedy at rkennedy@quarryvillelibrary.org or 717-806-1804.
